MERITS

Anthony's natural talents and unique characteristics.

Subdued Hunger

Prerequisites: Duskborn or vampire.

Hunger is one of a vampire's worst enemies, but you have learned how to manage it better than most, honing some measure of control over the Beast inside you. You gain a +1 dice bonus to Self Control tests to resist entering a hunger frenzy.

Activation. When you make such a test, you can activate this [merit] as a reaction for a basic success.

CLAN TRAITS

Anthony's supernatural talents, inherited from his blood.

Eyes of the Serpent

Prerequisites: Neonate or stronger. At least 1 dot in Presence.

Your eyes are slitted and serpent-like, though you can temporarily suppress this. At the start of a scene, you choose if your eyes are human-like or serpent-like.

If your eyes are serpent-like, the first time you and a mortal look at each other, you can choose for the mortal to be captivated by you. If the mortal is a ghoul, you must make a CHARISMA + PRESENCE test against its Composure to captivate it (no action required). While captivated, the mortal views your thoughts and opinions favorably, and you have a dice bonus equal to your generation modifier on tests that tempt or persuade the mortal to take risks, act outside its typical morals, or that similarly attempt to corrupt the mortal in some way. This effect lasts as long as you and the mortal can see each other. Once this effect ends, a mortal can't be affected by this trait again until the next night. Any mortal not captivated by you is unnerved by your unusual eyes, and you suffer a dice penalty equal to your generation modifier to all social tests against it.

If you are Ancilla or stronger, this Trait also affects vampires, but you must succeed on a CHARISMA + PRESENCE test to affect the vampire.

Activation. You can activate this trait as a reaction when you make a social test against a captivated mortal to have the test result in a basic success.

Serpent Speech

Prerequisites: Neonate or stronger. At least 1 dot in Corruption

Your cursed blood allows you to speak with serpents and reptiles, and these animals aren't immediately put off by your unnatural presence (see Vampire Characteristics in Chapter 2: Making Your Monster).

In addition, you gain a dice bonus equal to your generation modifier to social tests to influence serpents and reptiles.

NATURE

Anthony's nature, the mortal impulses at his core, and its associated outburst.

Bon Vivant

As a Bon Vivant, you know that life and unlife are shallow and fleeting. So you have decided to enjoy your time here and now. You aren't necessarily irresponsible; you are simply predisposed to having a good time along the way, and you love giving in to the pleasures that life and unlife can offer.

Indulging. You seek out the blood of the intoxicated to catch a little of their buzz. You abandon your responsibilities to chase off boredom with parties and other activities. You talk others into joining you in some frivolous pursuit.

Bon Vivant Outburst: Seek Fun. You are going to have a good time, even if it kills you. You can't use mental Discipline powers, and you must fight off boredom, because all at once, everything feels unbearably dull. You suffer a cumulative -1 dice penalty each time you take an action or make a test you already took earlier in this scene. For this outburst, an attack counts as a different (and therefore not boring) action so long as the target is different each time.

CLAN ASPECTS

Anthony is part of the Ministry vampire clan, which comes with great power but also a curse.

Clan Beast: Enticer

Your Beast rejoices in corrupting others, in making them chase their repressed desires and darkest wishes. You satiate it by indulging in hedonistic practices, enticing others to do the same, and by helping individuals discover what their secret desires are.

Curse: Sunlight Bane

Your blood is steeped in deception and temptation, which leaves it more vulnerable to the clarifying essence of the light. You are unusually sensitive to bright light, even from artificial sources, and suffer a dice penalty equal to your generation modifier to all tests whenever you are exposed directly to it. In addition, when you take baneful damage from sunlight, you take additional damage equal to your generation modifier.

Frenzy: Transgression

When you frenzy, all your Beast wants is to break the chains that keep others from indulging in their darkest desires. For the duration of the frenzy, you feel an uncontrollable urge to entice others to indulge in their most debased desires, whether giving in to a vice, acting selfishly, or sinking into some hedonistic pleasure. You suffer a dice penalty equal to your generation modifier to all tests not aimed at corrupting others in this way.

Discipline Powers

Anthony's Disciplines are Corruption, Obfuscate, and Presence which give him access to unique powers.

CORRUPTION

Self Doubt

1-dot Social Corruption

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Manipulation	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
Composure	Short	One scene

By questioning an individual's competence, you feed its insecurities and make it doubt itself. Choose an activity or task, such as painting or attacking, and make a Power test against the target's Composure. On a success, the target suffers a -1 dice penalty to all tests related to that activity or task. The effect ends early if the target succeeds on a task related to that activity with at least 3 successes. Since NPCs don't roll dice, the effect ends early on an NPC only if the activity performed requires a PC to defend against it, and that PC suffers a painful failure.

MATURING

Once you have more than 1 dot in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

- : If the target is a vampire, it must spend 1 extra Willpower in addition to the normal cost for any Discipline power it activates.
- : You can affect a number of targets equal to your dots in this Discipline.

Dark Secrets

2-dot Social Corruption

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Manipulation	2 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
Composure	Short	One turn

As you talk, your words infiltrate the minds of others and pull their darkest secrets out of them. Make a Power test against the target's Composure. On a success, the target blurts out one of its deepest, darkest secrets. This should be something the target feels shame over, and not necessarily information the target is hiding on someone else's behalf; the secret should be something personal. If you use this information against the target in a social situation, you gain a +2 dice bonus on social attacks against it.

MATURING

Once you have more than 2 dots in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

- : You compel the target to indulge its darkest urges, making it suffer a -2 dice penalty to tests unrelated to doing so, but it will also gain a +2 dice bonus to tests related to indulging in those urges.

OBFUSCATE

Conceal

1-dot Mental Obfuscate

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Intelligence	1 Willpower
Wits	Self	One scene

Your powers of subterfuge help you hide objects you carry, making others overlook them. When you activate this power, choose a number of small objects, including light weapons, equal to your dots in this Discipline. The objects become supernaturally hidden, and anyone who makes a cursory inspection of you can't detect them. If someone inspects you carefully, you must make a Power test against its Wits. On a success, it fails to detect the objects.

MATURING

Once you have more than 1 dot in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

- : You can also hide medium objects, including medium weapons.
- : You can also hide large objects, including heavy weapons.

PRESENCE

Dread Gaze

1-dot Social Presence

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Charisma	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
None or Composure	Medium	One scene

Your dreadful gaze fills a target you can see within Medium distance with the sense that you are judging its every action. The target suffers a -1 dice penalty to all tests while it can see you. This power ends early if you end your turn unable to see the target, or if you end your turn more than Medium distance from it.

MATURING

Once you have more than 1 dot in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

- : The target feels fear while under your gaze. While you can see each other, you can spend 1 Willpower as a reaction at the start of each of the target's turns and make a Power test against the target's Composure. On a success, the target suffers the Scared condition until the start of its next turn.
- : The target feels fear while under your gaze. While you can see each other, you can spend 1 Willpower as a reaction at the start of each of the target's turns and make a Power test against the target's Composure. On a success, the target suffers the Scared condition until the start of its next turn.
- : You can now affect targets you can see or hear and who can see or hear you.
