DISCIPLINES

ANIMALISM

● ○ ○ ○ ○

- * Sweet Whispers. Compel an animal to do a task.

OBFUSCATE

● ● ● ○ ○

- * Cloak of Shadows. Obscure yourself from others.
- * Silence of Death. Nullify sound you make.
- * Mask of a Thousand Faces. Blend into a crowd.

LIFEPATHS

Military. You served your country under their military organizations and acquired training in the art of war.

Technician. You worked with practical tools to create, repair, and dismantle things.

CLAN TRAITS

Feral Whispers. You can communicate with animals.

Ghost in the Machine. You can extend some Obfuscate powers to also affect electronic devices.

MERITS

Bond Famulus. You can elevate a ghoulish animal into a powerful familiar. Your current famulus is a rat named Augustus ("Gus" for short).

FLAW

Mistrust. You have a hard time trusting others, often isolating yourself, and hiding information from your allies.

NATURE

Scientist. Everything is a puzzle to solve.

Outburst: Critical Eye

BEAST

Nosferatu Beast: Secretive. Your Beast hungers for secrets and knowledge, hoarding it all.

Nosferatu Frenzy: Cryptophilia. When you frenzy, the need to know permeates you. You become consumed with a hunger for secrets and knowledge.

ULFRED'S DETAILS

More detailed descriptions of the powers and abilities that appear on Ulfred's character sheet.

AUGUSTUS "GUS" THE RAT | LEVEL 2

Standard Animal

Health: 6

Willpower: 6

Weapon: Bite (Melee) +1 attack and damage

Hidden Animal. Gus gains a +1 dice bonus to tests to hide and otherwise go unnoticed.

Reconnaissance Beast. Gus gains a +1 dice bonus to tests to notice hidden creatures and details in the environment.

Small and Fast. Increase the Difficulty to hit the rat by 1.

Strength in Numbers. The Difficulty to defend against this rat's attack is increased by 1 if at least two other rats are within Short distance of it.

REMINDER: Players roll dice for NPCs they control. To make a test for an NPC, create a dice pool equal to twice the NPC's Difficulty. For Augustus the Rat, a dice pool always starts as 4 dice.

LIFEPATHS

Ulfred's professions and life experiences and the directions his life and unlife have taken him.

Military

You served your country in its armed forces and received extensive training in the art of war and survival. Weapons are your most trusted tools, and you rarely leave your companions behind. You might still have contact with some of your former comrades, as you survived hell together.

- ♦ Skills: Athletics, Fighting, Medicine (First Aid), Shooting (Heavy Weapons), Survival

- ♦ Resources: Physical Asset (Repository: Weapons), Social Asset (Contact: Military), Social Asset (Ally: Former comrades)

Technician

You learned how to work with your hands, even without the deep theoretical knowledge to back it up. You are resourceful and can usually figure your way out of most problems you face.

- ♦ Skills: Athletics, Craft (Improvised), Fighting, Sabotage (Security Systems), Subterfuge
- ♦ Resources: Physical Asset (Vehicle), Physical Asset (Repository: Tools), Physical Asset (Haven)

MERITS

Ulfred's natural talents and unique characteristics.

Bond Famulus

Prerequisites: Duskborn or vampire. At least 1 dot in Animalism.

You can elevate one animal ghoul of yours into a unique familiar. The process takes at least 1 hour and consumes 3 health. You must spend this time bonding with the animal both emotionally and supernaturally, whether by something as simple as meditating with it or as active as hunting alongside it.

The animal you choose must already be your ghoul, and its NPC Level must be no higher than your dots in Animalism. Once bonded, your famulus increases its NPC Level by your generation modifier (to a total no higher than twice your dots in Animalism) and increases one tier (minion to standard, standard to elite, and so on). Your Animalism powers also cost 1 less when used on your famulus, which can reduce a power's cost to 0. You can have only one famulus at a time.

If you have at least 5 dots in Animalism, you can maintain up to two famulus at once, and your Animalism powers used on them are reduced by an amount equal to your generation modifier, which can also reduce a power's cost to 0.

When a famulus dies, or when the bond is otherwise broken, you lose Willpower equal to your dots in Animalism, and can't form this bond with another of your animal ghoul's until the next night.

CLAN TRAITS

Ulfred's supernatural talents, inherited from his blood.

Feral Whispers

Prerequisites: Neonate or stronger. At least 1 dot in Animalism.

You can communicate with animals, and animals aren't immediately put off by your unnatural presence (see Vampire Characteristics in Chapter 2: Making Your Monster). When communicating with animals, you can address only one animal family (such as canidae, corvidae, felidae, or muridae) at a time. For example, you could address a group of corvids, which includes ravens and jays, but you would need to repeat yourself in different "languages" if you wanted to speak with a mixed flock of ravens, songbirds, and seagulls. You can't use this power through electronic devices.

If you have at least 3 dots in Animalism, you can address a number of different animal families at one time equal to your dots in Animalism, provided the animals are within range of your voice.

Ghost in the Machine

Prerequisites: Neonate or stronger. At least 1 dot in Obfuscate.

When you use an Obfuscate power to hide or obscure your presence, whether by sight or sound, you can spend 1 Willpower (in addition to the power's normal cost) to extend the obscurement to electronic devices. Microphones and similar devices don't pick up the sounds you make when using Silence of Death, and photographs and videos show you as blurry or indistinct when using Cloak of Shadows. If you are seen on a live feed while using Cloak of Shadows, you are invisible, blurry, or masked in some way, obscuring your identity.

If you have at least 5 dots in Obfuscate, this effect can extend to all creatures or objects obscured by your Obfuscate powers, not just you. At the Storyteller's discretion, a large object, such as a car or house, might appear plain, ordinary, or not easily identifiable rather than invisible in photographs and recordings.

NATURE

Ulfred's nature, the mortal impulses at his core, and its associated outburst.

Scientist

As a Scientist, you see existence as a puzzle you can help reassemble. You examine every situation and maneuver logically and methodically, looking for likely outcomes and patterns. You don't always reach for a scientific or rational explanation, but you examine your surroundings rigorously and with a critical eye.

Indulging. You notice the systems and patterns of the world and often point them out to others. You read patterns of behavior and use that knowledge to your advantage. You are forever searching for the pattern in a situation, trying to tie everything together logically.

Scientist Outburst: Critical Eye. Every little detail seizes your attention. You can't use social Discipline powers, and your mind fixates on everything around you, from the faint smell of cigarettes on a rival's coat to a fleck of dust drifting past as you move. You suffer a dice penalty equal to your generation modifier to all tests, as you struggle through the distractions. If you roll a 10 on any test before the outburst ends, you cut through the noise enough to notice a new detail, which becomes apparent to you after the outburst ends. The Storyteller decides what you noticed, such as an old blood stain peeking out from under a nearby chair or a name whispered between your opponents.

CLAN ASPECTS

Ulfred is part of the Nosferatu vampire clan, which comes with great power but also a curse

Clan Beast: Secretive

Your Beast hungers for secrets and knowledge, hoarding all it can. You pry secrets from others to use against them or to serve you when the moment comes. You satiate it by uncovering the secrets of others, hiding information, and turning what you know against them.

Curse: External Beast

While the Beast of other vampires sits just below the surface, yours is written plainly on your skin. For many in the clan, this is a mark of pride, a hidden truth laid bare. Your appearance unsettles most mortals and reminds other vampires of the inner truth none of them can escape. When dealing with mortals, you suffer a dice penalty equal to your generation modifier to all social tests not meant to frighten, coerce, or assert dominance. Against vampires, this dice penalty applies only when your physical appearance negatively impacts the interaction.

Frenzy: Cryptophilia

When you frenzy, the need to know consumes you. You hunger for secrets and knowledge, driven to learn something, anything, no matter how large or small. All your other actions suffer a dice penalty equal to twice your generation modifier. This frenzy can end early if you uncover a secret significant enough to matter in the scene. For example, if you learn that a vampire in this scene, one who holds information you need, has a ghoul it plans to Embrace without permission, your frenzy can end early, since you now hold leverage against that vampire.

Discipline Powers

Ulfred's Disciplines are Animalism and Obfuscate, which give him access to unique powers.

ANIMALISM

Sweet Whispers

1-dot Mental Animalism

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Manipulation	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
Resolve	Short	One night or until completed

You give a simple, one-sentence, verbal command to an animal you can see within Short distance. You need to make a Power test only if the target is a ghoul, familiar, or other animal supernaturally connected to a supernatural creature that isn't you. In these cases, make a Power test against the target's Resolve.

The animal performs the command in a literal way, unable to interpret or infer subtle meaning behind your command. If you can speak with animals, you can make yourself more clearly understood, allowing for a slightly more complex command that might require some interpretation or that might have an extra condition. For example, if you can't speak with the animal, you can command it to guard a location, and it will attack anyone except you that enters the location. If you can speak with the animal, you can command it to guard a location but to allow those that smell a certain way, carry a certain object, or hum a specific tune to pass. The command can't force the target to do something harmful to itself or to put itself in direct danger.

OBFUSCATE

Cloak of Shadows

1-dot Mental Obfuscate

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Dexterity	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
None	Self	One scene

You use some form of cover to hide yourself. While motionless, you remain obscured and difficult to detect. For the duration, you gain a dice bonus equal to your dots in this Discipline to any tests you make to sneak or hide.

This effect extends to what you are wearing and carrying. It doesn't affect another creature, unless that creature is small enough to fit in one of your pockets or inside your coat, or is otherwise disguised or hidden on your person. This power ends early if you move, attack, make a sound, or if someone detects you.

MATURING

Once you have more than 1 dot in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

●●●: Moving no longer ends this power early. As long as you emit no overpowering odors, make no sound louder than a whisper, and take no action that would obviously reveal you, you remain hidden from those around you, as your power manipulates their senses to obscure your presence

●●●●: You no longer need cover to hide when you activate this power; you can simply disappear even while under direct observation. In addition, you can now activate this power as a Minor Action.

●●●●●: You can extend this power's effect to a number of friendly targets of your choice equal to your dots in this Discipline, but you must spend 1 Willpower at the start of each of your turns to maintain the extended effect. Each target must be within Close distance when you activate this power and must stay within Short distance to remain affected. If one target performs an action that would end the power early, the power ends for that target only. If you end the power early, such as by not spending the Willpower that turn, it ends for all targets.

Silence of Death

1-dot Mental Obfuscate

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Dexterity	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
None	Self	One scene

You become silent, nullifying all sound you make. This works only on creatures within earshot and doesn't fool microphones or other electronic sound detectors. It affects only the sense of hearing, and it doesn't eliminate sounds you make outside of yourself, such as throwing or dropping objects or slamming doors.

MATURING

Once you have more than 1 dot in this Discipline, you can use this power in new ways:

●●●: You can choose for the silence to extend outward from you up to Close distance and nullify the sound of 1 additional creature you can see for each dot you have in this Discipline. This effect is centered on you and moves with you, silencing the sounds of you and your additional targets in that area.

●●●●: You can activate this power as a minor action.

●●●●●: You can choose for the silence to extend outward from you up to Short distance.

Mask of a Thousand Faces

3-dot Mental Obfuscate

ACTIVATE	ATTRIBUTE	COST
Action	Dexterity	1 Willpower
DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
None	Self	One scene

Your powers of subterfuge allow you to blend into the crowd, making you nondescript and above suspicion. You make yourself appear as a nondescript stranger, someone expected to be in the area, such as a construction worker at a construction site. You arouse little suspicion as long as your presence is at all plausible, and you can even safely converse with individuals at the location. This power doesn't provide any personal identification or other means of passing an identity check. Anyone who looks at you sees a forgettable face of the same gender and roughly the same build and height as you. Even your clothing takes on a forgettable appearance suited to your location.
